

CANADIAN TRANSPORTATION MUSEUM & HERITAGE VILLAGE

Featuring: The Souterrain Impressions Exhibit:
“First World War Carvings come out of the darkness and into the light”

Update: Viewing only open till NOVEMBER 16

The exhibit is open from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm Tuesday through Sunday until November 16 at 6155 Arner Townline in Kingsville, ON.

- The community is invited to view carvings and images created by Canadian soldiers in caves near Vimy Ridge, during the First World War as they waited to move to the forward trenches in France.
- The latest technology in 3D laser scanning and high resolution photography made it possible for exhibit curator Zenon Andrusyszyn and his team at The Canadian Historical Documentation & Imaging Group, CANADIGM, to bring these carvings to Canada
- The Exhibition received The Lieutenant Governor's Ontario Heritage Award for Excellence in Conservation

Admission to the exhibit is free.
Donations are greatly appreciated to help cover costs.

For more information, contact Lisa Wacheski, Curator & Manager of Education at the Canadian Transportation Museum & Heritage Village at curator@ctmhv.com, 519-776-6909, www.ctmhv.com.

