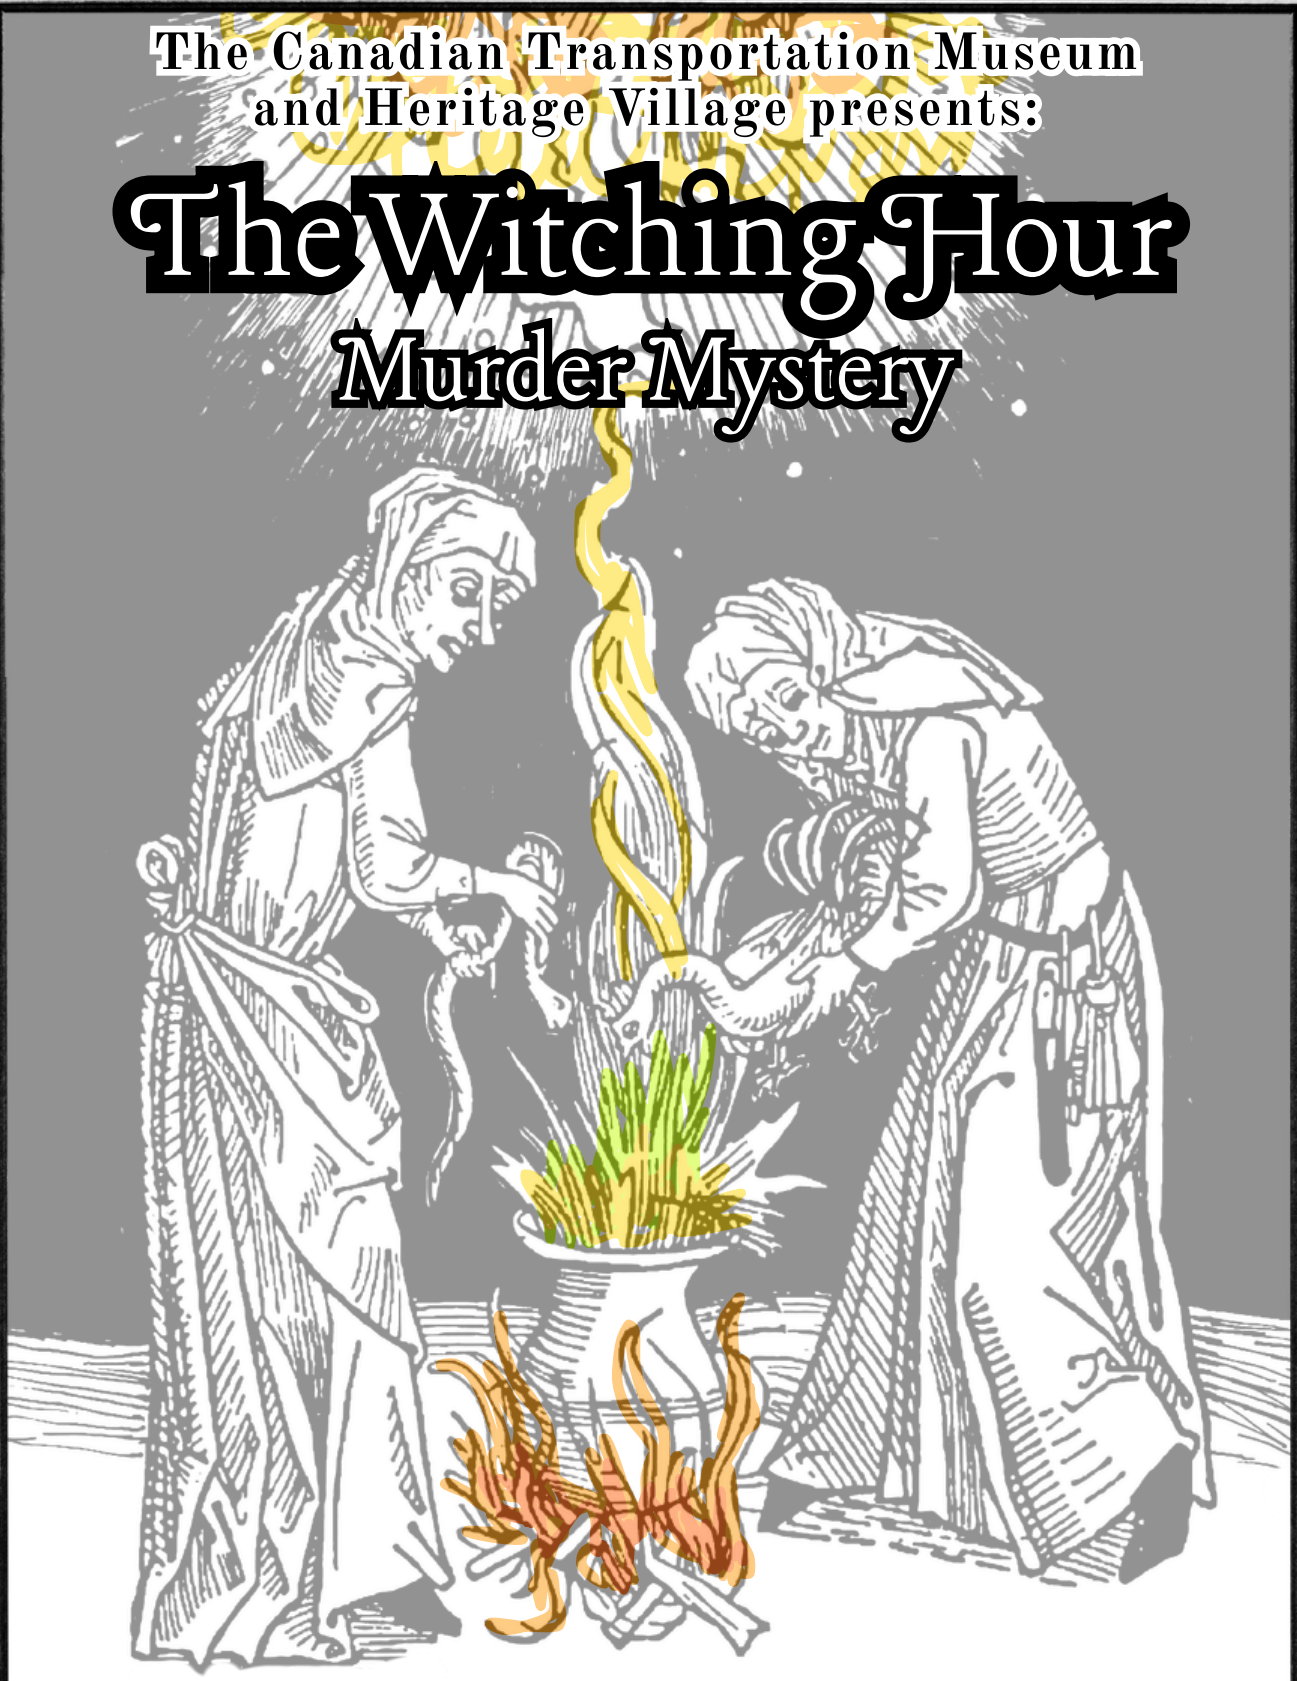
The Witching Hour

Murder Mystery



Can you solve the murder?

Dear investigators,

The year is 1666. A murder has been committed in the small town of Ender Haven, New England. Here is all of the information I have about the events of the crime.

Fredrick Elmsworth was a well known minister. He was known for traveling to surrounding towns to spread the warning of witches to anyone who would listen. It was when he was preaching in his home town of Ender Haven, that disaster struck. In the middle of his sermon, multiple parties reported that Fredrick was coughing, became red in the face, then eventually slumped over his podium when death overcame him. Many believe that his death was orchestrated by witches. Marcuth Snubb has accused and arrested Ms. Mildred Redding but there isn't enough evidence, this is where you come in.

The other suspects include Winifred Dudley, his maid, Emery Pierce, the Apprentice Witchfinder, and Elver Creed, the Deacon

It's now up to you to find out who murdered the Minister, Fredrick Elmsworth.

Agatha Parker, Midwife
She's been accused of being a witch. Could it be true?

Serenity Woolard, Midwife's Assitant
She has met the accused, Mildred Redding. What are her opinions on the visitor?

Edith Thlorpe, Spinster
She hates the Witchfinder for his baseless accusations!

Faith Elmsworth, Minister's wife
She believes that Winifred is teaching her children witchcraft.

Amity and Patience Elmsworth, Minister's daughters
They miss their father and are doing everything in their power to fix the situation.

Winifred Dudley, Maid
She had a few things to say when she quit her job the other day.

Tobias Hatch, Blacksmith
Who does he think killed the minister?

Jamie Seigehill, Traveling Merchant
They travel around to different towns. Perhaps they've heard things from other.

Able Coltsfoot, Apothecary Owner
Does Able believe that the minister died from witchcraft? Or something else...?

Francis Nettle, Apothecary Assistant
Francis is friends with many people in town. Perhaps they have some important insight.

Roburtus Shumingway, Witchfinder
He must have an idea of who did it. Who has he accused of practicing witchcraft?

Emery Pierce, Witchfinder's Apprentice
Emery knows a lot about how to spot a real witch. The minister didn't.

Bernard Dudley, Beekeeper
Bernard is scared of anyone who could have possibly been involved. Including his sister.

Maurice Fairgrove, Watchman
A murder couldn't have happened when he was on watch. It must have been natural causes.

Elver Creed, Deacon
He has the most to gain from the minister's death, but would he take it so far?

Wilmus Elmsworth, Minister's son
He knows it definitely couldn't have been Winifred or Elver. They are both so kind.

Marcuth Snubb, Constable
It must be Mildred! Because between her and Eunis, the jail is full.

Mildred Redding, Accused
She claims that she just wanted to have a peaceful chat with the Minister.

Eunice Hodgins, N/A
She knows Emery would never do such a thing.

We would like to thank all of our volunteers for making this event possible!
